

Lockheed Martin

50 Years of Innovative Solutions for Latin America

250+ employees across Latin America with major operations in Mexico and Colombia

250+

0.5 Million

Colombia has operated the Black Hawk helicopter for 30 years and has more than half a million flight hours

66 C-130's bought by Latin American countries

Brazil was the first country globally to operate TPS-77 Radar

66

1st

Ecuador's M28 can take off from and land on runways just 548 meters long

548m

Chile is home to 44 F-16's, the world's most successful 4th generation fighter jet. More than 3,000 fly worldwide, operated by 25 nations

50

Brazil received its first C-130B Hercules over 50 years ago in 1965

300+ Sikorsky Helicopters operate across Latin America...

...undertaking missions as diverse as search & rescue, offshore oil personnel transport, and flying heads of state

Dozens of satellites provide important capability for the Americas, including accurate GPS navigation + severe weather tracking

44

3

3

Chile has 3 frigates with CMS 330 combat systems integration at their core

3 Sikorsky helicopters form the Argentine Presidential helicopter fleet

